

World Book Day Book Club April reader questions: High-Rise Mystery by Sharna Jackson

- 1. The opening of the book throws you straight into the action how did this make you feel as you read it?
- 2. Nik is the narrator of the story how do you think Norva's telling would be different? What would she say about Nik?
- 3. Nik and Norva use different approaches when they are looking at the case who are you most like?
- 4. Was there anything that you would have done if you were solving the case that Nik and Norva didn't?
- 5. Were there any characters that surprised you?
- 6. The book's setting as Nik and Norva's home means they know that they will know the killer what does that do to you as a reader?
- 7. The book uses dialogue as a way to move the story along what impact does this have on you as a reader?
- 8. Did you guess the murderer before the end? What were the clues that gave it away for you?
- 9. Have you read any other mystery books? Were there any similarities?

