This pack has been created to use in conjunction with the Ruby's Worry storybook video in World Book Day's Share A Story Corner.

Enjoy watching the video together; look at the pictures, listen to the words, talk about it together and then have fun completing the activities.

The activities are designed for children in Early Years and Years 1 & 2 to help develop confidence in reading together as a family at home or in school/nursery.

Ruby's Worry is part of the Big Bright Feelings series by Tom Percival, published by Bloomsbury. To find out more about the series visit bloomsbury.com and for other video stories in the series visit worldbookday.com/share-a-story-corner.

What would your worry look like?

In Ruby's Worry, Ruby realises that everyone has worries from time to time.

If you had a worry, I wonder what it would look like. What colour and shape would it be? Can you draw a picture or make a model of your worry? Colour in the frame of your picture in lovely bright colours.

More to talk about

I wonder if you can think about a time you shared a worry with someone else. How did it feel?

FOOTNOTE: If you are concerned about how you or your child is feeling or these books have brought up things you are finding it difficult to discuss you can find help and advice here. World Book Day's Safeguarding Policy can be found here
