

If you love DAVE COUSINS, try . . .

DON'T CALL ME ISHMAEL
MICHAEL GERARD BAUER Templar
With a name that is heaven to bullies, geeky Ishmael keeps a low profile at school. Until a fearless new boy thrusts him into the limelight!

GEEKHOOD: CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE GEEK KIND
ANDY ROSS Little Tiger Press
In his role-playing games, Archie is a Level 5 Mage. In the real world, he battles orc-like bullies and bad hair. Can he succeed in a Daring Quest to win a gorgeous girl's heart?

NOAH BARLEYWATER RUNS AWAY
JOHN BOYNE Random House
Running down the hidden forest path, Noah finds a marvellous toyshop, whose toymaker spins a story of wonder, magic and broken promises.

HOLES
LOUIS SACHAR Bloomsbury
Digging a hole in the desert sun at boot camp each day is the way to turn a bad boy into a good boy. But is that all there is to it – or must Stanley dig up the truth?

SOCKS ARE NOT ENOUGH
MARK LOWERY Scholastic
He's embroiled in a school scandal, his big brother is snogging his dream girl, AND his parents are secret nudists who want to go public! Could Mike's life get any worse?

EVERYBODY JAM
ALI LEWIS Random House
His big brother is dead, his school-age sister is pregnant, and Danny is stuck trying to prove that he's a man. Then into the chaos comes a wide-eyed English backpacker.

THE WORLD OF NORM
JONATHAN MERES Orchard
It's just not fair! In fact, in Norm's world, nothing ever is – especially now they've moved house and he mistakes the wardrobe for the loo! Will his life ever get easier?

GRAFFITI MOON
CATH CROWLEY
Tonight, Lucy means to find Shadow, the graffiti artist whose colours and birds have made her fall in love from far away. She has seven hours to find this boy of heartbreak and escape. But she can't see the one thing that's right before her eyes.

These books have been picked by SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUBS, who have hundreds more children's books to keep the reading habit going long after World Book Day. Give your child the choice at clubs.scholastic.co.uk.