

If you love MALORIE BLACKMAN, try . . .

BEING BILLY

PHIL EARLE

Puffin

Eight years in a care home have left Billy angry – with the system, the social workers, and the mother that gave him away. It's not that he means to make trouble. He's just being Billy. He can't be anything else. Can he?

BETWEEN SHADES OF GRAY

RUTA SEPETYS

Puffin

One night in 1941, Lina, her mother and young brother are hauled from their home by Soviet guards, thrown into cattle cars and taken away. They are being deported to Siberia. An unimaginable journey has begun.

COLD HANDS, WARM HEART

JILL WOLFSON

Walker

The lives of two teenage girls become literally connected after one unexpectedly dies, and the other receives her heart. A fascinating and unusual story on an important and topical issue.

DON'T CALL ME ISHMAEL

MICHAEL GERARD BAUER

Templar

With a name that is heaven to bullies, geeky Ishmael keeps a low profile at school. Until the debating team thrusts him into the limelight!

HITLER'S CANARY

SANDI TOKSVIG

Random House

Nazi troops are flooding into Denmark. At first, Bamse and his friend Anton think the occupation's a big joke. But then Bamse realises that Anton's in terrible danger. Can he help to save Anton – and Denmark – from the Nazis?

MATCHED

ALLY CONDIE

Puffin

On her seventeenth birthday, Cassia meets her Match. Her perfect partner for life, dictated by society. Except that he's not. A gripping dystopian story of fate, freedom and romance set in a world where every detail, from birth to death, is controlled.

MY NAME IS MINA

DAVID ALMOND

Hodder

The extraordinary prequel to Skellig. Enter the mind of Mina before she meets Michael – a girl who loves nature, and the solitude of night.

OUT OF SHADOWS

JASON WALLACE

Andersen

In 1980s Zimbabwe, a new president takes power, promising new hope for black Africans. But some whites want their old country back. Ones like clever, cunning Ivan.

PRISONER OF THE INQUISITION

THERESA BRESLIN

Random House

A beggar, wrongly condemned. A son sworn to avenge him. The magistrate's daughter, indulged and wild. In the splendid city of Granada, as the Inquisition casts dark shadows, the stage is set for a terrible act of revenge.

THERE IS NO DOG

MEG ROSOFF

Puffin

In the beginning, there was Bob . . . What if God was really a renegade teenage boy? Lazy, careless, vain, girl-crazy – and about to meet the most beautiful girl in the whole world. No wonder Earth is such a mess!