

If you love PATRICK NESS, try . . .

BLOOD RED ROAD

MOIRA YOUNG Scholastic

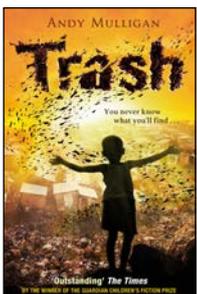

When Saba's brother is stolen, red rage fills her soul. Racing across the cruel dustlands to find him, she can spare no one. She must silence her heart to survive. Blood will spill.

WITCH CRAG

KATE CANN Scholastic

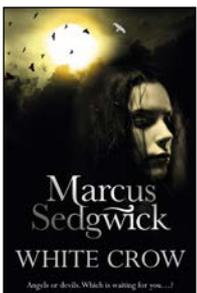

In a primitive tribe where women are treated with less value than sheep, Kita and her friends must accept brutal forced marriages – or escape to the place they all fear most: Witch Crag.

TRASH

ANDY MULLIGAN Random House

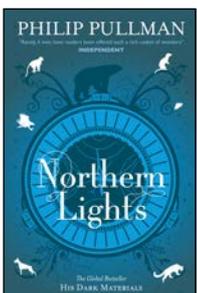

Raphael is a dumpsite boy who spends his days knee-deep in rubbish. Until he finds a precious bag which will transform his world and leave him running for his life.

WHITE CROW

MARCUS SEDGWICK Orion

In a sleepy coastal village, a gothic mystery unfolds: the story of evil Dr Barrioux and his grisly experiments into the afterlife, which would make angels weep, and the devil crow.

NORTHERN LIGHTS

PHILIP PULLMAN Scholastic

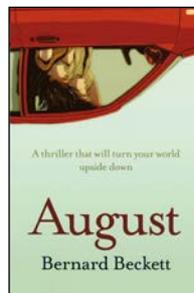

In a glittering Arctic north of armoured bears and witch-queens, scientists are conducting experiments of unspeakable terror. Follow Lyra as she travels to the frozen north – and the very edge of her world.

DEPARTMENT 19

WILL HILL HarperCollins

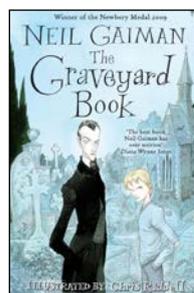

In a secret supernatural battle that's been raging for over a century, the stakes have just been raised – and they're not wooden anymore. Enter Department 19, the government's most secret agency: the only reason you're alive!

AUGUST

BERNARD BECKETT Quercus

The island Republic is the last remnant of a ruined planet. Its citizens are safe – but not free. A truly original dystopian novel set in a world torn apart by war, climate change and plague.

THE GRAVEYARD BOOK

NEIL GAIMAN Bloomsbury

A young boy is raised in a graveyard by ghosts, ghouls and spectres. But danger is coming, not from the dead but from the living . . . The newest Carnegie Medal winner: an intricate and deliciously creepy Gothic fantasy by the author of Coraline!