April reader questions

The Hunt for the Nightingale
by Sarah Ann Jukes and published by Simon & Schuster

Book Club questions based on The Hunt for the Nightingale extract:

1. What do you do to make yourself feel better when you feel anxious or scared?
2. What were your thoughts about including the bird facts and pictures?
How did this change the way you read the book? Is there anything you'd like to know more about?
3. Play the nightingale audio on the RSPB's website - click here or sit outside and listen for birdsong then read the first chapter of the book again. Does this make any difference to the experience? Does the sound of birdsong remind you of anything?
4. If you have one – have a look at an Ordnance Survey map of your local area – or even plan a walk – how is reading a map different from reading a book? Does it change the way you think about an area you know well?

Further Book Club questions based on The Hunt for the Nightingale:

1. How did this book make you feel?
2. Did your feelings about, or for Jaspar change as he went on his walk?
3. Did this book remind you of any others? Can you recommend them?
